The Friends of the Western Sullivan Public Library formed in 2013. The group offers community events throughout the year and raised funds for furniture for the community rooms, the creation of the Friends' Cafe, replacement of boilers, an iPad for the children's room, and so much more!

The Western Sullivan Public Library has branches in Callicoon, Jeffersonville and Narrowsburg. Visit them online at www.WSPLonline.org.

Why join the Friends of the Library?

Our Mission

The Friends of the Western Sullivan Public Library is a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting the library in promoting literacy and life learning skills. Our purpose is to inspire and encourage our communities to provide resources that will support and enhance the work of Western Sullivan Public Library.

Our Purpose

This organization shall maintain an association of persons interested in libraries; focus public attention on the library; advocate on behalf of the library; stimulate the use of the library's resources and services, including technology; receive and encourage gifts and donations; and support and cooperate with the library in developing library services and facilities for the community.

Get Involved

Joining is a great way to meet new people! Throughout the year the Friends of the Western Sullivan Public Library hold book sales, raffles, social events and other special events.

Be an Advocate

Join this dynamic group of community members and help support your local library and its work. Be a part of a group that advocates for the library and the community!
